Presidents Message

The holiday season is here and it is a wonderful time to spend with your family and friends. Along with that also comes the stress of the season as well as the fun. Be sure to enjoy the season with family and friends and take a little time to take care of yourselves.

Have a Happy Holiday Season and a Merry Christmas.

Your President, Debbie Witcher

Outing Ideas

Is there something you would like to see our Chapter members Do? Want to take a field trip or outing you think might be of interest to other members? Let us know. Send Bill Birdwell a message. obill15@comcast.net You can even set up an impromptu last minute outing as Preston did. If you are going somewhere and would like some company this is a great way to include others. Let Mark know the date, time, and where and he will send out an e-mail. Let those who don't have email know so they can attend with you. For those few who were able to join Preston, they had a good time and even got a little gold. We need to have more of these weather permitting.

Education

Rick Beehler will be leading a class on panning for the December education.

In January we will be having a panning competition. Groups will consist of experts through green horns.

There will be a 1st 2nd and 3rd for each group where you will win a gold nugget.

Future educational presentations :

Identifying mercury
How to dial in that metal detector

HOLIDAY DINNER

BRING YOUR DISH(S) TO THE POT LUCK. The chapter will provide, the meat, beverages, and table ware. Jeanne has something special planned. Join your fellow chapter member for good food and fellowship.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN GOING TO NOME, AK?

The trip to the AKAU lodge is planned for July 20-27 2018.

The cost is 1,300 plus you need to arrange your air fare. The price includes meals, room, laundry is available, and transportation to and from the Nome airport, as well as some local activities. ATV'S are available to rent for personnel use. There is a lot to do and see or just enjoy the down time from your busy life and visit with others.

There is a min. age limit.

For more information contact Debbie 360-695-3215 with questions and to sign up. Space is limited. This is open to all chapter members, friends and family. Some of the Mid-valley folks will be joining us.

GOLD SHOW PLANNING MEETING

Our next planning meeting will be Sat Jan. 6, 2018 ,12 noon at the grange. If you need vendor packets, or help with securing a vendor or Chapter sponsor please feel free to contact me.

Bring your ideas and help out with the planning of this event.

PANNING CONTEST AND TRAINING

Rick Beehler is going to run a panning contest after the meeting while we clean up after the dinner, He will be teaching panning to those who want to learn and for those who do know how to pan or maybe a different way of panning.

You will have a month to practice as the contest will be held in Jan. 2018 after our meeting. We will have 2 categories. Novice, experienced, and we may add children as well.

Both novice and experienced will have 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes. Come have fun and try your panning skills.

OUTINGS

As announced in last months newsletter and at our meeting Bill Birdwell is our outings chair. Please help him out by suggesting outings and also think about volunteering to be the lead for an outing. It takes less than 1 hr of your time and is needed. You need to let us know what outings you would like to do. Please be pro active with this and make suggestions. We are very limited as to locations to go.

You can even set up an impromptu last minute outing as Preston did. If you are going somewhere and would like some company this is a great way to include others. Let Mark know the date, time, and where and he will send out an e-mail. Let those who don't have email know so they can attend with you. For those few who were able to join Preston, they had a good time and even got a little gold. We need to have more of these weather permitting.

SUGGESTION BOX

I have created a suggestion box for members to give us ideas on any and all things Chapter related. i.e. outings and events, raffle prizes, newsletter items and articles, committees needed, things for the chapter to buy/sell, ways to improve chapter education, and much more. This is a way to hopefully improve communication, and for those to shy to talk to us it gives you a voice. You do not need to sign the suggestion but you can if you would like to. As always I am available if you need to talk to me.

Club Name Tags

Any club members that would like a plastic name Tag made for them can place an order at the next meeting.

Cost is 7.00 for each tag that includes up to 2 lines of engraving.

NOME ALASKA 2017

Our trip this year to the AKAU Lodge in Nome was the trip of a lifetime for not only myself, but also for many in our club. Some of us worked that ground till it gave up a smiling face in their pans. Others took their time to run those metal finding gadgets we call a metal detector, digging out of the ground each prospective object that gave us a beep or buzz to lure us under that surface layer of dirt. Dig and dig we were hungry to get down to the bottom of what was causing that buzzing sound. Some found yellow gold, some found that there had been a hunter shooting a .22 caliber rifle. One of the treasures that I was tempted to chase that buzzing sound was a nail that came from a mule shoe which had a longer head that gave it the same traction power as the studs in our tires do for us when driving on ice or snow.

One of our club members had taken on the position of being one of the Cooks at the Lodge and had the longest stay in the gold camp. Limited time off gave her the chance to experience what prospecting in Alaska was all about.

As one of the cooks, we owe Sharon a big THANKYOU for taking a part in keeping us all fed well and for keeping that hot coffee ready to warm us up.

Our President Debbie Witcher had her hands full with keeping everyone satisfied in going the directions we wanted to go for each activity that was available. We had The Trips off to the beach looking for the NOME Beach Glass, down to the Highbankers for gold, out fishing to catch salmon, the long drive to the Eskimo Village up north. Then the metal detector people had to be satisfied too. With Augie and Debbie working together they had their hands full trying to keep each facet of this trip addressed. Betty and Tony were constantly planning meals for the group and working in time to guide groups of us in different directions hoping to show us all that Alaska had to share. There was So much to see and so little time. But all of the time was well spent, still leaving a hunger to return for more.

Fishing was on the top of my list to experience and thanks to Augie's special recipe fish eggs, I was astounded to see fish biting within 20 seconds of my bait hitting to water. My roommate bragged about catching over 100 fish on one of his trips to the river.

Many of you may know that my trip was a much longer stay than most which gave me the chance to experience what Nome was really like. While there, I met a friendly world of people as like I have never seen in the lower 48 states. Everywhere you drive, ride or walk there was always a friendly wave hello.

While fishing there, I had the honor of helping a young lady catch her first salmon, helping her family all catch fish was a treasured experience.

While on my extended stay, I was able to travel off to the beaches West of Nome and gathered a few buckets of what is called Ruby Sand. The garnets in the sand lay hand in hand with fine granules of GOLD. I took those buckets back to camp and processed it down to a higrade paydirt. In Paying Forward the benefit of my experience, I will offer 7 oz of that higrade paydirt to the best story about their experience gained from the 2017 trip to the AKAU Lodge. That story/tale can be no longer than 333 words. It must be submitted to be in the January Newsletter before January 4th to qualify for a chance at the paydirt. All Tales/Stories should be sent to Mark chipper49@outlook.com and rickbeehler@ymail.com

There my chance to help in the program put together by Betty, Tony and the Mayor of Nome Richard Beneville to teach people from the cruise ship how to pan for gold. Seeing their faces glow when they saw the yellow in the bottom of their pans left as much a feeling as if I had just found a nugget myself. Adding to their smile was the postcards that we taped their gold to so they could take that little bit of Alaska back to Florida with them.

I must extend my gratitude to all of the people at the AKAU Lodge who worked hard at making my stay such a pleasurable experience and to Debbie Witcher and Randy Harper in their effort to make this trip come together for everyone who had the chance to be there.

The rewards of my trip were not measured in the gold in my pan or nuggets that talked to my metal detector. The true rewards were from all of what Nome had to offer in the memories of a time not soon to be forgotten. Rockhound Rick

The digging was much easier than when done in the 1800s. Notice that even the mules were replaced!

This was sometime around 3 AM, after it finally got dark. That fisherman speeding by kind of blurred my picture.

Those dark brown spots at 2 o'clock above the tall building are Musk Ox. At times they graze in the blue berries between that small shack and the AKAU Lodge.

The season to dredge can be short depending a lot of the weather. These are all dredges working all the hours they can to try to cover expenses.

Yes, the young Bull is marking his territory early, I don't think the Old Man of the herd is worried yet. This was taken from the porch outside of the AKAU Kitchen.

Fantastic photos are everywhere to be captured as a memory of that special moment in time.
